

Lilavati Hospital Offers Free Medical Aid to Victims of Pahalgam Terror Attack

In a heartfelt gesture of solidarity and service to humanity, Lilavati Hospital and Research Centre, Mumbai, has announced free medical treatment for individuals who were injured or lost a family member in the recent terrorist attack in Pahalgam, Kashmir. Condemning the brutal act of terror, the hospital has also expressed its unwavering support to the Indian Army, the Government of India, and citizens across the nation during this time of grief.

“We at Lilavati Hospital and Research Centre are deeply shocked and saddened by the heinous terrorist attack in Pahalgam,” said Mr. Rajesh Mehta, Permanent Trustee of Lilavati Hospital. “On behalf of our entire board, under the guidance of Smt. Charuben Mehta, our Founder and Permanent Trustee for Life, we extend heartfelt condolences to the victims and their families.” As a part of its humanitarian initiative, Lilavati Hospital has set up a dedicated helpline—+91 84228 91032—to ensure immediate medical support and coordination for those impacted by the tragedy.

Mr. Mehta emphasized the hospital’s continued commitment to national service, stating, “In this hour of national grief, we stand in unwavering solidarity with our fellow citizens, the Indian Army, and the Government of India. Lilavati Hospital remains dedicated to offering compassionate care, particularly in times of national adversity. Together, we stand stronger.”

The hospital has urged all affected individuals in need of medical care to reach out without delay.
